From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

Vienna, Sept. 12.

THE 10th Instant Prince Emanuel of Savoy arriv'd Post from Piemont, with the welcome News of the taking of Fenestrelles. On Sunday last their Imperial Majesties assisted at the solemn Procession which is made annually to our Cathedral, in Commemoration of the Deliverance of this City in 1683, when it was besieg'd by the Turks; and on this Occasion Te Deum was sung, and a general Salvo given by all the Artillery on our Walls, and by the Muskets of the Guards. The Count de Loffelholz let out from hence the 8th of this Month for Hungary; whence we are inform'd by Letters from Guia of the 3d of this Month, that there were already encamp'd there 7 Regiments of Foot, viz. those of Salm, Sickingen, Arnau, and 4 of Danes: That the Disposition of the Camp was alter'd that Day, to make Room for several other Regiments; and that on the 4th Field-Marshal-General Count Heister was expected there, to put these Forces on the March, with the heavy Cannon and Mortars which were coming from Buda. So that we expect to hear in a little Time that he has undertaken some Siege of importance. Other Advices say, that Count Berzenius'd great Endeavours to draw together a Body of Troops, and that he had put to Death several Persons suspected of a Design to quit his Party, in order to terrify others: That several of his adherents had already abandon'd him, and carry'd off a great Sum of Money belonging to him; taking also 80000 Florins from a French Officer. They add, that all the Inhabitants of upper Hungary had laid down their Arms; so that the said General and the other Chiefs of the Malecontents were in no less perpetual Distrust of their own Party than Apprehensive of the Imperialists.

Leipsich, Sept. 15. Letters from upper Poland give an Account, that General Smigielski, who some Time since came over to the Party of King Stanislaus, had been worsted in an Action with General Rybinski who commands a Body of Troops on the Part of the confederated Nobility against King Stanislaus; and that another Detachment of General Rybinski's Troops had ruin'd a new Regiment of Horse, rais'd for the Service of the King of Sweden, and compos'd mostly of French-men. These Letters add, that some eminent Persons of the Nobility of Hungary, who were in the Party of Prince Ragotski, had abandon'd him, and retir'd into the Palatinat of Cracow. We have receiv'd confirm'd Advice from Ratisbon, that the 7th of this Month, Count Kinsky the Emperour's Plenipotentiary, was introduc'd into the College of Electors as Deputy from the Crown of Bohemia; and that at the same Time Baron Limbach was also introduc'd into the same College, and took his Seat as Deputy of the Elector of Hanover.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Sept. 25.

Turin, Sept. 8. Our Duke's Troops are at present encamp'd near Fenestrelles, having the Head-Quarter at Mantoule. The Marshal de Villars having left 10 Battallions on Mount Genevre, March'd off without Beat of Drum and is now encamp'd at la Vachette near Briançon. At the same Time General Medavi with his Body of Troops abandon'd the Valley of Aoste, and march'd back into the Tarentaise.

Lions, Sept. 12. On Sunday last the Marshal de Villars with part of his Troops encamp'd under the Cannon of Briançon, to cover that Place; and he himself is at present in it: The rest of his Troops are posted in divers Passes, to hinder the Incursions of the Allies. They write from Marseilles, that 6 Gallies fitted out there, put to Sea the 6th Instant, to carry the Marshal de Theise from Antibes to Genoa.

London, Sept. 23.

Yesterday arriv'd Letters from Ostend.

Ostend, Oct. 1. The 27th past a Detachment of 1100 French from Bruges and the adjacent Garrisons attack'd 600 of our Foot posted at Oldenburg; and after an Hour's Dispute the Enemy were repuls'd with Loss, the Colonel who commanded them being among the kill'd. The Convoy of 700 Waggon, which were sent back from hence with Ammunition and Provisions for the Siege of Lille, &c. stop'd at Lessing till they were assur'd they might pass safely by Oldenburg; and being inform'd the Enemy were repuls'd there, they let forward the 28th at 2 in the Morning. The 29th we had an Account by Deserters, and Peasants, that the Day before, Major General Cadogan being detach'd by the Duke of Marlborough with 25 Squadrons and 14 Battallions to meet the foresaid Convoy, was attack'd on this side Tourout on the Plain of Cochlare near the Wood of Winendale by M. de la Mothe who had with him 26 Battallions, 9 Regiments of Horse, and 18 Regiments of Dragoons, which Deserters report were the best of the Enemy's Troops, and a Train of 26 Fieldpieces some of a tripple bore. The Enemy cannonaded our Men from 2 till 4 in the Afternoon; and then came to a close Engagement, which lasted till half an hour past 7. The Action was very hot, and in the End the Enemy were oblig'd to retire towards Bruges, leaving behind them 3000 of their Men kill'd on the Spot, and 8 Pieces of Cannon: 'Tis said that in this Action M. de la Mothe had one Son kill'd and another wounded. During the Fight the Waggon made the best of their Way to Rousselaer, with a Guard of 800 Horse; and 'tis not doubred they all got safe to the Camp the 29th at Night. We have no Account yet of this Action from our Army. All the Forces that came hither with General Erle, are now encamp'd at Raversien, with their Right towards Newport; and 800 Men of them are employ'd to guard the Post of Lessing, for the better Security of which Works are cast up by Peasants summon'd in from the Country. We have Advice, that M. la Mothe came to Oldenburg last Night with 8000 Foot: As also that the Enemy have reforc'd the Garrison of Newport with 2 Regiments.

Ostend, October 1. 'After the Count de la Mothe found that he could not possess himself of the Post of Oldenburg the 27th past at Night by the Party he sent thither for that purpose, he drew all his Forces together the 28 h, consisting of about 16 or 17000 Men and march'd to the Plains of Tourout our

This Packet from Ostend was brought over by Captain Laycock; who reports that on Monday last he heard very distinctly in Ostend the Noise of the Cannon at Lille, as he did afterwards when at Sea.
